1. Can a sentence be made up of only one word?
One word is insufficient to express one’s intended meaning. One must use two or more words to convey a complete sentence.

2. What is an example of a complete sentence?
An example of a complete sentence is: ﷲ ﻣُنَافِع (knowledge is beneficial.)

3. What does a sentence consist of?
A sentence is made up of single words which are divided into three categories: verbs, nouns and prepositions.

4. Does every sentence have a verb, noun and preposition?
A sentence is not conditional on always having a verb, noun and preposition. Instead it can be made up of:
- Two nouns: اللَّهُ ﻋَادِلٌ (Allah is just.)
- A verb and a noun: ﻲﻨُوُأ ﺱَرَاحٌ (A lamp died out.)
5. What does syntax teach us?
Syntax teaches us the different cases of words when they are found in different combinations.

6. Is every word alike in the way it changes due to different combinations?
There are two types of words that are put into combinations:
• Indeclinable: the end of the word does not change.
• Declinable: the end of the word changes.

7. What must one do to speak correctly, according to the principles of syntax?
One must know the declinable and indeclinable words in order for his speech to be correct. He must also know the different cases of declinable words in order to stay away from mistakes.

8. Is there a rule which teaches us what the last syllable of a indeclinable word should be?
There is no rule which teaches us what the last syllable of a indeclinable word should be, instead we must refer to dictionaries.

9. Is there a rule which teaches us what the last syllable of a declinable word should be?
There are rules that teach us what the last syllable of a declinable word should be.

10. What different cases can a declinable word have?
The different cases of declinable words are as follows:
• For verbs: nominative, subjunctive and jussive
• For nouns: nominative, accusative and genitive

11. How can we understand which case should be used?
If we want to correct our mistakes in speech we must know when a verb is nominative, subjunctive or jussive and we must know when a noun is nominative, accusative or genitive.

12. When is a verb put into the subjunctive case?
A verb is put into the subjunctive case if it follows one of the four following prepositions:

An لن إنن كى

For example:
1) أريد أن أتعلم النحو (I want to learn syntax.)
2) لن يجد البخيل (A miser will not be generous.)
3) (In that case, we will let you stay in our house.)

4) (Study so that you preserve.)

13. When is a verb put into the jussive case?
A verb is put into the jussive case when it is preceded by one of the following prepositions:

لَمْ لَا مَآ لَمْ الْأَمَرْ لَالْتَّنَاهِيَةُ إِنْ إِذَا مَنْ مَنْ مَهَّما أَيْ كَيْفَمَا مُتَى أَيْنَ آيَانَ أَيْنَ حَيْنَا مَا

14. How many kinds of jussive prepositions are there?
There are two types of jussive prepositions:
• Four of them put one verb into the jussive case:

1) لَمْ لَمْ بَذْهَبْ أَحَدْ (Nobody came.)

2) (تَعَلَّمْ الْفِرَايِةُ وَلَمْ يَكْتُبْ (He learned to read and has not written yet.)

3) لَمْ الْأَمَرْ (You must become happy, yourself.)

4) لَا النَّاهِيَةُ (Don't loose hope in Allah's mercy)

• Twelve of them put two verbs after them into the jussive case. The first verb is the conditional verb and the second verb is its answer.

1) إِنْ تَكْسِلْ تَخَسَّرْ (If you become lazy you will suffer a loss.)

2) إِنَّمَا تَعَلَّمْ تَنْقَدِمُ (Whenever you learn you will advance.)

3) مَنْ يَتَلَّبَ بَيْدَ (Whoever seeks finds.)

4) مَا تَعَلَّمْ فِي الصَّفَرَ يَنْفِعُكَ فِي الْكَبْرِ (Whatever you learn in youth will benefit you in old age.)

5) مَهَّمَا تَأْمُرُ بِالْخَيْرِ أَفْعَلْهُ (Whenever you order me to do good I will do it.)

6) أَيْاً نَكْرُمْ أَكْرَمُ (Whoever you respect I respect.)

7) كَيْفَمَا تَتَّجَهْ عَادٍ (Whenever you go you will pass by well.)

8) مَثَى يَصِلِّحُ بَاطِلَكَ يَصِلِّحُ ظَاهِرَكَ (Whenever your inner-self becomes fixed your outerappearance will become fixed.)

9) أخيِّنا بُنيَّةً تَنْجَح (Wherever you go you will be saved.)

10) ِّيِّا إِيُّا تَسْأَلَتِي أَجِبُكَ (Whenever you ask me I will answer you.)

11) َّيِّا بُنيَّةً صَاحِبِ الْعَلَمِ بُكْرَمِ (Wherever a scholar goes he will be respected.)

12) َّيِّا تَسْفَفْ تَثْبَت (Wherever you fall you will stay.)

15. When is a verb put into the nominative case?
A verb is put into the nominative case if it is not preceded by a subjunctive or jussive preposition. For example: ُّيِّا نَزَّلَ الْمَلَّاحِرُ (The rain is falling.)

16. Are vowel signs present at the end of a weak verb?
If the last letter of weak verb is an َّيِّ، the ُّمَّامَة is erased in the nominative case and the ُّفَّاه is erased in the subjunctive case. But, if the last letter of the weak verb is either a َّوَ or a َّأَ، the ُّمَّامَة is erased in the nominative case because of the difficulty of pronouncing it.

17. In how many different cases is a noun put into the nominative case?
A noun is put into the nominative case in six different cases:
• First: if it is an actor
• Second: if it is a subject of the predicate
• Third and fourth: If it is an inchoative or predicate
• Fifth: If it is an inchoative of the verb َّا or one of its sisters
• Sixth: If it is a predicate of َّا or one of its sisters

18. What is an actor?
An actor is a noun that is preceded by a verb and denotes the person who carried out that verb. For example: ُّلَعَبَ الصَّغِيرِ (The child played). Here, child is the actor because it came after the verb and denotes who played.

19. Does the verb remain in the same form if the actor is feminine?
If the actor is feminine the verb is placed into the feminine form by adding a ُّتَأْ to the end of a preterite tense verb or a ُّتَأْ at the beginning of an aorist tense verb. For example:
20. Does the verb remain in the same form or is it put into the plural form if the actor is in the dual or plural form?
The verb remains in the single form even if the actor is in the dual or plural form.

21. What is a subject of the predicate?
A subject of the predicate is a noun that takes the place of the actor in a sentence after the actor is erased. For example: سُرَقت ساعةٌ (A watch was stolen.)

22. What is the difference between an actor and a subject of the predicate in terms of meaning?
An actor is the one who performs the action where the subject of the predicate is the one that the verb was performed on. When we say that Joseph stole a watch, Joseph is the actor because he is the one who stole. But, if it is unknown who stole the watch or we do not want to mention his name, we say: A watch was stolen. Here we erased the actor from the sentence and placed the thing that received the action 'watch' in its place. We also put the verb into the passive tense.

23. What state is the verb in when there is a subject of the predicate?
The verb should be placed into the feminine state if the subject of the predicate is feminine. The verb should remain in the singular state if the subject of the predicate is in the dual or plural form.

24. What is a sentence that has a verb and an actor or a subject of the predicate called?

A sentence comprised of an inchoative and a predicate is called a nominative sentence.

An objective compliment is a noun that receives the action of a verb, but does not change the structure of the verb. For example: ﻣَلَمَانَ ﻏَلَامُ (The student sharpened a pencil.) In this sentence, pencil is the objective compliment because it received the verb to sharpen and does not affect the structure of the verb. Of course, if an objective compliment affects the structure of the verb it is a predicate and must be put in the nominative case.

34. What is a congnate?
A congnate is a noun that is mentioned after the verb:
• for emphasis: ﻣَلَا ﺑَنَسُ ﻣَلَا ﻣَلَا (The watchman murdered the thief a murder.)

38. Are all of the nouns that denote time or place able to put into the accusative case because of their being adverbs?
